AN ACT

For the relief of John B. Clayton.

December 15, 1973
[H. R. 5379]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) John B. Clayton, an employee of the Department of the Army, Fort Richardson, Alaska, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the sum of $1,066.09 representing the amount expended by the Government for travel and transportation expenses of his dependents incident to home leave travel. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

John B.
Clayton.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to John B. Clayton, an amount equal to the aggregate of any amounts paid by him or withheld from sums otherwise due him by reason of the liability referred to in this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved December 15, 1973.
